The forums are free to browse and free to join.

WHY IT MATTERS

"There's no single place online where boaters can find every major party spot, compare notes, and share local tips until now," said Dave Saitta, founder of ProxylMedia.com. "This isn't just a listicle. It's a living resource backed by community forums where boaters tell each other which sandbars are still worth the trip and which ones to skip this season."
